

Bite Sized Learning – Disability Etiquette

Overview

Come on this thought provoking session to help you feel more positive and confident when meeting disabled people. Learn about the different ways of thinking and talking about disability. Let us help you understand more about the Equality Act and 'reasonable adjustments' in relation to disability.

Who should come on the course?

All employees at all levels of the organisation. Tenants, volunteers and students. Content is tailored for different groups.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this session you will:

- Understand what disability is
- Know what words to use and why
- Understand what shapes our own view of disability
- Know what the social model of disability is
- Understand who is protected by the Equality Act
- Be able to suggest 'reasonable adjustments' for disabled people.
